

Presents:

“Putting it All Together: Use of Prosody Within Effective Interpretation”

Registration now open!

.6 CEUs in P.S.

Monday, January 4, 2016
a widely shared Atlanta area teacher work day.

9:00 am—3:00 pm

NorthStar Church Educational Facility
3413 Blue Spring Road, NW
Kennesaw, Ga 30144

GaRID Member Price: $55.00
Non-Member Price: $75.00
December 7-23, late registration—add $20.00
Registration ends December 23rd/no on site registration.

Catered lunch included

This workshop will explore ways in which interpreters can incorporate ASL prosodic features to allow students a higher degree of access to curriculum.

Presented by
Frances J Beaurivage
Sign Communication & Curriculum Specialist
EIPA Center Manager
Center for Childhood Deafness, Omaha, Nebraska

Including lunch time EIPA Q&A with Frances and special guest:
Jodi Upton, EIPA Proctor

DEADLINE FOR REGULAR REGISTRATION: 12/23/2015 (December 7-23, add late fee of $20.00)

Registration is open online from the garid.org “events” page, or mail registration form below with payment, payable to GaRID to:

Diane Lynch- GaRID PDC Chairperson
3680 Longlake Drive, Duluth, GA 30097

There is an additional service fee of $2.00 when registering online.

Workshop is presented in spoken English; special accommodations, such as interpreters, must be requested no less than 14 days before the event. Partial CEUs will not be granted; participants need to be present during the entire workshop to receive .6 CEUs. No refunds.

Name: _____ Address: _____
Amount Enclosed: _____ (Member: $55.00/Non-Member: $75.00)
Email address: _____ Phone: _____
Accommodations Requested: _____

